Experience this Lakusta Custom Home — just in time for Christmas in the mountains! Built by a respected local builder, this impeccably cared-for 2,555 sq. ft. mountain-meets-modern home checks every box: a double car garage, walkable location, four bedrooms, and four and a half bathrooms, including three ensuites. The thoughtful layout offers effortless main-level living, filled with natural light and surrounded by tranquil forest and Three Sisters views. The entry level is perfection — heated concrete floors, a rec room, bedroom, and bar, ideal for a guest suite, home gym, or media space. Upstairs, the kitchen is made for entertaining with custom two-tone cabinetry, quartz countertops, gas stove, and a massive island that flows into a sunny great room with vaulted ceilings and walk-out patio with stamped concrete and mountain views that stretch from the Three Sisters to the forest behind. Also on this level, retreat to the primary suite, a serene, light-filled escape with spa-inspired ensuite comfort. Vaulted ceilings and expansive windows bring nature inside, while premium finishes like hardwood flooring, in-floor heating, and stainless steel appliances blend style with mountain practicality. Designed for today’s living, the home includes rough-ins for air conditioning, EV charger, and hot tub, plus a finished heated garage. From this elevated setting, enjoy the best of both worlds — steps to the Bow River, Main Street cafés, and world-class trails, or head up the hill to the Nordic Centre. Unlike nearby new builds, GST has already been paid and the landscaping is picture perfect and complete.
