A prime development opportunity! This corner lot is ideally situated across from a park with a playground and features a desirable west-facing backyard. The home includes an updated kitchen with stainless steel appliances, including a fridge, stove, and dishwasher. The renovated bathroom features a relaxing soaker tub. Newer windows and a ceiling fan enhance the spacious living room. The main floor offers a versatile bedroom/den, with two additional bedrooms on the upper level. Conveniently located near an off-leash park, a community centre with an arena, a fitness facility, and outdoor tennis/pickleball courts, this lot also offers walkable access to popular eateries and the vibrant Kensington district, known for its diverse shops, dining, and entertainment options. Buyer must assume the tenant.
